San Pablo de Buceite property for sale A very unique cottage which nestles into the winding streets of the incredibly pretty village of San Pablo de Buceite, near Jimena de la Frontera! The property has a large 1 bedroom main house and a 1 bedroom guest house at the bottom of the gardens. Beautiful garden and terraces, room for a pool. Just lovely! Entering this pretty village cottage from a hidden entrance via garden gates, into the most charming of gardens, full of herbs, flowers and fruit trees, it is an absolute delight to the eye! The garden climbs up to the large terraces, which have superb country views. The main house sits to the rear of the garden. Built on one floor, this is a perfect retirement home, offering spacious, open plan living, kitchen and dining area, which lead off to a very good size bedroom and a bathroom. For the visitors, there is a very sweet little guest house at the front of the garden, offering 1 bedroom and bathroom and a living room with a small galley kitchen. There is ample room to install a swimming pool if desired.
